MARK ATTANASIO
CHAIRMAN AND PRINCIPAL OWNER

The 2020 season is the 16th for Mark Attanasio as chairman and principal owner of the Milwaukee Brewers. Over the past four years, he has overseen a transformation of the team that has resulted in three consecutive winning seasons as well as postseason appearances in 2018 and 2019 — just the second instance of back-to-back postseason berths in franchise history.

Over the course of Attanasio's leadership of the organization, the Brewers have been one of the National League's most competitive teams, recording the league's fifth-highest winning percentage (1233-1198, .507). In addition, over the past three years, the Brewers have been one of the most successful clubs in all of Major League Baseball. Since 2017, the Crew is one of just five teams that have recorded at least 86 wins each year, while only two National League teams have accumulated more wins than the Brewers during this span.

Throughout Attanasio's tenure as chairman and principal owner, the organization has focused on acquiring and developing young impact players while also remaining an attractive destination for veteran free agents. Last year saw the launch of American Family Fields of Phoenix – the Club's Spring Training complex – which was transformed into a state-of-the-art training and development facility. Attanasio has also worked to maintain continuity among the organization's leadership, securing long-term contracts with President of Baseball Operations and General Manager David Stearns, President of Business Operations Rick Schlesinger and Manager Craig Counsell, who is now the longest-tenured manager in the National League. Additionally, over the past 16 years, the Brewers have invested significant resources to enhance the fan experience at Miller Park — consistently rated as one of the best venues in baseball — as well across the Brewers' farm system.

Attanasio remains focused on his longstanding objective to establish the organization as a champion both on and off the field. He continues to work diligently to uphold the four cornerstone pledges he made to the Brewers and to the community when the Club was purchased 15 years ago:

1. FIELDING A PERENNIALLY COMPETITIVE TEAM

Attanasio has worked closely with David Stearns, Craig Counsell, and the rest of the baseball operations staff to build a sustainable inflow of young talent that supplements the team's veteran players to field a perennially competitive roster. These efforts have resulted in back-to-back postseason berths over the last two seasons.

In 2019, the Brewers sent a franchise-best five players to the Major League Baseball All-Star Game — Christian Yelich, Josh Hader, Brandon Woodruff, Yasmani Grandal and Mike Moustakas— for the second summer in a row. The organization continued to be well-represented throughout the league's end-of-season awards, with Hader earning honors as the National League's top reliever as well as Yelich winning both the National League's batting title and earning the Hank Aaron Award as the league's top hitter for a second straight year.

The 2019 roster featured prominent contributions by several players brought up from the organization's farm system, including pitcher Adrian Houser and second baseman Keston Hiura, who emerged as one of the most talented young hitters in all of baseball. The system featured plenty of its own end-of-season hardware, including recipients of the Triple-A batting title (catcher David Freitas), Southern League Most Outstanding Pitcher (Trey Supak) award and Carolina League Most Outstanding Pitcher (Noah Zavolas) and Most Valuable Player (catcher Mario Feliciano) honors.

2. DELIVERING THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE, WHETHER AT MILLER PARK, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

Attanasio continues to appreciate the unwavering support and enthusiasm of Brewers fans and remains committed to providing them with the best experience possible. That commitment has included funding enhancements on numerous fronts to the fan experience at Miller Park over the years, including the creation of a brand-new bar and viewing deck — Miller Lite Landing — located in the left field Loge Level bleachers this past offseason.

In 2019, nearly three million fans entered through the gates at Miller Park, an average of 36,091 per game, which ranked eighth in all of baseball and marked the 12th time in the past 13 seasons that the team drew more than 2.5 million fans.

3. REMAINING A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

Throughout Attanasio's tenure with the Brewers, he has remained committed to and personally involved with Brewers Community Foundation (BCF), the charitable arm of the organization. Since the Foundation's rebranding in 2010, BCF has continued to expand its outreach efforts in the Milwaukee community. In 2019, BCF raised more than $4 million.

Over the past decade, BCF has provided over 2,000 grants totaling more than $19 million to nonprofit organizations across Wisconsin that support programs focused on its four areas of concentration: health, education, recreation and basic needs. In addition to the fans' support of the Foundation, all uniformed players, their families, team executives and front office staff contributed their time and/or financial resources to BCF in 2019.

The Brewers' commitment to making an impact in the community will continue to expand with the organization's 15-year naming rights agreement with American Family Insurance, which was announced in January 2019 and begins in 2021. As part of the agreement, the Brewers and American Family Insurance will collaboratively fund projects throughout Greater Milwaukee, including refurbishing youth and high school baseball and softball fields.

4. BEING AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

Attanasio has continued to deliver on his commitment to make the Brewers one of the best places to work, not only in Greater Milwaukee, but in all of sports. Throughout his 15 years as principal owner, the organization has grown as a desirable destination for some of Major League Baseball's top players, front office personnel and business executives.

Under Attanasio's leadership, the organization has created a corporate culture focused on best practices and achieving excellence across all areas and departments. This includes providing the Club's employees with training, personal and career development, as well as opportunities to participate in the Brewers' outreach efforts in the Milwaukee community.

BEYOND THE BREWERS

Attanasio has been an accomplished investment management executive for more than 30 years. In addition to his role as chairman and principal owner of the Brewers, he is a managing partner of Crescent Capital Group, Inc., an employee-owned Los Angeles-based asset management firm which he co-founded in 1991.

Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards, including the Board of Trustees of Heal the Bay, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and Harvard-Westlake School. He is also a member of Major League Baseball's Executive Council, Labor Policy Committee and Revenue Sharing Definitions Committee, and is chairman of its Investment Committee. Additionally, he is a member of LA2028, the bid committee that successfully secured the 2028 Summer Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Attanasio is also an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law. He and his wife, Debbie, have two sons, Dan and Mike, and two grandchildren.

RICK SCHLESINGER
PRESIDENT - BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Rick Schlesinger enters his 18th season with the Brewers and second in his current position after being promoted on January 23, 2019. He has previously held roles with the organization as executive vice president of business operations (2003-10) and chief operating officer (2011-18).

Schlesinger oversees the organization's business operations, including finance, human resources, information technology, legal, sponsorships, marketing, ticketing, business analytics, broadcasting, communications and non-baseball special events. In addition, he also oversees the team's Spring Training complex in Phoenix and the operations of the Carolina Mudcats, the organization's Class-A affiliate.

The Brewers have established new records in nearly every aspect of the business during Schlesinger's tenure. In 2019, over 2.9 million fans attended games at Miller Park, marking the 12th time in the past 13 seasons that the organization has surpassed 2.5 million in attendance.

In 2019, the organization completed two significant initiatives. First, the team undertook an extensive renovation of its Phoenix-based Spring Training complex, American Family Fields of Phoenix. The $60-plus million project included a new building housing the clubhouses as well as vastly improved facilities for all baseball operations functions. It also featured a wide array of enhancements to the fan experience at the complex, including new concessions, retail stores, seating and scoreboard.

Second, the team introduced a new logo and uniform system centered around a modernized version of the iconic ball-in-glove logo, which was first introduced in 1978. Four new uniforms were included in the new system, including a cream-colored home uniform with an industrial font.

DAVID STEARNS

PRESIDENT - BASEBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

David Stearns, 35, enters his fifth season with the Brewers, leading the organization's baseball operations functions. Stearns was named the ninth general manager in franchise history on September 21, 2015. He officially assumed the position on October 5, 2015 and was promoted to president of baseball operations on January 23, 2019.

Since becoming the Brewers' general manager at age 30, Stearns has implemented an approach to build and retain talent across all levels of the organization that could make an impact at the Major League level. Under Stearns and Manager Craig Counsell, the team increased its win total in each of the first three seasons (2016-18), recording a 5-game improvement from 2015-16 (68 wins to 73), 13-game improvement from 2016-17 (73 wins to 86) and 10-game improvement from 2017-18 (86 wins to 96).

In 2018, under Stearns' leadership, the team won a franchise record-tying 96 games and the second National League Central Division title in franchise history, swept the Colorado Rockies in the National League Division Series, and came within one game of reaching the World Series. The Brewers also earned Baseball America's 2018 Organization of the Year Award.

Prior to the 2018 season, Stearns orchestrated a series of moves that were key to the Brewers' success as he traded for outfielder Christian Yelich and signed outfielder Lorenzo Cain and starting pitcher Jhoulys Chacín. Yelich went on to earn National League Most Valuable Player honors. He and Cain formed one of the majors' most formidable duos atop the lineup, each finishing in the top five in the National League in on-base percentage. Chacín led the Major Leagues in starts (35).

The Brewers made similar high-impact additions prior to the 2019 season, agreeing to a one-year contract with catcher Yasmani Grandal on January 14, and later bringing back Mike Moustakas on a one-year deal. The team went on to defy early September odds by winning 17 of 19 games en route to clinching a postseason berth on September 25. The Brewers went 18-5 over their final 23 games — the best record in baseball during this span — and secured a National League Wild Card spot, marking the second instance of postseason appearances in consecutive years in franchise history (also 1981-82).

Stearns joined the Brewers following three seasons (2013-15) as assistant general manager with the Houston Astros, where he was a key member of the management team, focusing on all areas of baseball operations, including analytics, administration, player development and scouting. During his tenure in Houston, the Astros put together one of Major League Baseball's most dramatic turnarounds in recent history, going from 51 wins in 2013 to 70 in 2014 and 86 in 2015 en route to clinching the American League Wild Card, the team's first postseason berth in 10 years.

Prior to joining the Astros, Stearns spent one year as director of baseball operations with the Cleveland Indians, running from December 2011 through November 2012, where he focused on contract negotiations, salary analysis, team strategy and roster management. From 2008-11, he worked in the Office of the Commissioner, most recently as manager of labor relations, where he assisted in the salary arbitration process, handled uniform player contracts, and was a member of Major League Baseball's negotiating team for the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Stearns served baseball operations internships with the Pittsburgh Pirates (summers of 2005-06) and New York Mets (2008). He also worked for the Arizona Fall League as assistant director of baseball operations in 2007.

Stearns graduated from Harvard University with a bachelor's degree in political science in 2007. The New York City native currently resides in Milwaukee with his wife, Whitney, and their daughter, Nora.

BREWERS IN THE COMMUNITY

BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION, INC.

Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. is the official charitable arm of Milwaukee Brewers Baseball Club. We are proud to give back to our community in many ways. Brewers Community Foundation harnesses the pride, passion and commitment of Brewers fans, players and other supporters to positively impact the lives of children and families in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. The Foundation seeks to be thoughtful and dependable philanthropic leaders actively engaged in providing needed financial support consistent with our mission.

BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION 50/50 RAFFLE

Tickets for the 50/50 Raffle are sold throughout Miller Park from gate opening through the fourth inning of every Brewers home game. One lucky fan will take home half of the net proceeds from the game's raffle ticket sales, with the other half benefitting Brewers Community Foundation. The winning ticket will be announced in the middle of the sixth inning, before the Johnsonville™ Famous Sausage Race, and the winner will have until the middle of the seventh inning to claim his/her prize at the 50/50 information table. If the prize goes unclaimed, another ticket will be drawn and announced. Last year, the Foundation helped more than 200 local nonprofit organizations provide quality programming in the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs. For the winning raffle number and amount, call the 50/50 Raffle hotline at (414) 902-4334.

BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION DRIVE FOR CHARITY

During select homestands throughout the season, Brewers Community Foundation invites fans to drop off items or make a donation of $5 to help those in need. As a thank you for contributing, fans receive a collectible Brewers pin. The donated items are distributed to nonprofit organizations in Greater Milwaukee. This year, the dates include:

- April 10-12: peanut butter
- May 8-10: toiletry items
- August 20-23: school supplies
- September 18-20: new hats, mittens and scarves

The presenting sponsors of the Drive for Charity events are the Brewers Community Foundation Leadership Council. To learn more, visit brewers.com/bcf.

BCF WEEK

Brewers Community Foundation will host its 11th annual BCF Week from June 9-14, 2020. The week will feature activities during each game that raise funds to support children and their families in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. From merchandise sales to games, there's something for everyone. Additionally, fans can get involved by bidding on unique experiences in the annual Ultimate Auction or by purchasing special Give Like a Pro fan packs from June 1-14.

The presenting sponsors of BCF Week and the Ultimate Auction are the Brewers Community Foundation Leadership Council. To learn more, visit brewers.com/bcf.

SCOREBOARD RECOGNITION PROGRAM

Fans can purchase either a full scoreboard message or single-line shared message during a game at Miller Park through Brewers Community Foundation's Scoreboard Recognition program. To reserve a message, visit brewers.com/scoreboard.

CHAMPIONS FOR CHANGE SCOREBOARD MESSAGES

Before select 2020 Brewers home games, messages detailing the work of organizations that Brewers Community Foundation supports will be featured on the Miller Park scoreboard. Accordingly, fans will learn about the fantastic work being done by hundreds of nonprofits in our community, aided by the funds raised by BCF.

GRANT REQUESTS

Brewers Community Foundation provides a significant number of grants each year to nonprofit organizations. Our funding efforts strategically extend financial support to nonprofits that provide quality programming in the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs, with a particular focus on low income and disadvantaged youth and their families. Grants are generally limited up to $10,000 for Wisconsin-based organizations. All grant applications are to be submitted online. For further information and the online application, please go to brewers.com/bcf.

BREWERS BUDDIES TICKET PROGRAM

In 2019, more than 68,000 complimentary game tickets were distributed to youth groups and community organizations through the Brewers Buddies ticket program. The program is made possible through the generosity of season seat holders, ownership, players, sponsors and Commissioner Emeritus Bud Selig, who provides game tickets to Brewers Community Foundation for distribution to community groups. For information about participation in this program, call (414) 902-4625.

5K FAMOUS RACING SAUSAGES™ RUN/WALK

On July 18, Brewers Community Foundation will be hosting the 21st annual 5K Famous Racing Sausages Run/Walk. Held rain or shine, this event is a summer tradition for thousands of Brewers fans of all ages. The Run/Walk features unique opportunities to compete against the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages and follow the route onto the Miller Park warning track, before enjoying a tailgate party with complimentary food and beverage. Each participant receives a commemorative t-shirt, ticket voucher for a future Brewers game and more. Proceeds benefit Brewers Community Foundation and Fisher House Wisconsin, a "home away from home" for families of veterans being treated at Clement J. Zablocki VA Medical Center.

The presenting sponsors of the 5K Famous Racing Sausages Run/Walk are the Brewers Community Foundation Leadership Council members. To learn more, visit brewers.com/5k.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS

Brewers Community Foundation is proud to offer three scholarship programs to Wisconsin students. Applications may be submitted online from January through March. For more information and the online application, visit brewers.com/bcf. In 2019, 25 Wisconsin students received scholarships toward their college education through Brewers Communtiy Foundation.

The Allan H. Selig Scholarship Program was created in the name of former Brewers President and Commissioner of Baseball Allan H. (Bud) Selig. Funding for the scholarships is the result of proceeds donated by Major League Baseball from the All-Star Workout Day, part of the 2002 All-Star festivities held at Miller Park. Selected candidates will receive $2,500 annually, renewable each year for a total of $10,000 over four years.

The Players/Coaches Scholarship Program is made possible thanks to Milwaukee Brewers players' and coaches' commitment to educational opportunities for youth. This scholarship is a one-year award that varies in amounts from season to season for students who plan to attend or are currently attending a college or university in Wisconsin.

The Miller Park Community Scholarship Program provided its first award in 2013. Eligible applicants must be a minority or female student residing in either Milwaukee, Waukesha, Ozaukee, Washington or Racine County. Applicants must also be students pursuing studies in a design or construction-related field at a technical college, college or university in the state of Wisconsin. Scholarship awards will be of varying amounts based on need.

SUPPORT BREWERS COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Brewers Community Foundation is the nonprofit tax-exempt arm of the Milwaukee Brewers that supports other nonprofits in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin in the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs. You can join our efforts by donating to Brewers Community Foundation at brewers.com/bcf.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Brewers Community Relations Department is committed to supporting many events and activities throughout the state of Wisconsin. The Club is pleased to give back to dedicated fans who have supported the Brewers throughout the years.

Many charities, educational groups, youth groups and nonprofit organizations raise hundreds of thousands of dollars through the support of players and auction items provided by the Milwaukee Brewers. By supporting charitable causes, the Brewers, including players, coaches, Brewers Wives and front office staff, will continue exercising a pledge to be an active member in the community and help improve the welfare of people throughout the region.

BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Beyond the Diamond is a series of community outreach events that take place during the season involving players, coaches, Brewers Wives, alumni and team personnel working hands-on in the community. The community events are funded in part by Brewers Community Foundation and focus on the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs.

DONATION REQUESTS

The Brewers receive thousands of requests annually to assist local nonprofit organizations, community and civic groups with in-kind donations for fundraising events. Being an active and contributing member of our community, it is very important to us to make every effort to accommodate requests within our region. In our continuing efforts to "Go Green," we no longer accept written letters or fax donation requests. All donation requests must be submitted online at brewers.com/donations.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITIES

Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities (RBI) is a youth baseball program operated by Major League Baseball that began more than 20 years ago in Los Angeles. The Brewers have joined other Major League teams in the continuing effort to bring baseball to inner-city youth, ages 9-17. Brewers RBI teams have made it to regional competitions with the support of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee and funding from Brewers Community Foundation.

RBI ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

Each month, an athlete who is enrolled in the Brewers RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities) will be recognized for his/her dedication to academics, community involvement, leadership, reliability and monthly performance. RBI coaches can nominate their RBI Athlete of the Month online at brewers.com.

BREWERS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Brewers Alumni Association consists of over 600 players who were members of the Milwaukee Brewers or the Club's forefathers, the Seattle Pilots, during their Major League career. The Association aims to provide an opportunity for the Club's alumni to maintain relationships with former teammates, the organization and Brewers fans.

BREWERS WIVES

Brewers Wives play an important role in our community outreach efforts with their commitment to several important causes. Each summer, the wives team up with Brewers Community Foundation to raise funds through a number of special events with proceeds earmarked for various organizations in Greater Milwaukee and Wisconsin. Several of the wives, along with their husbands, also support area children with game tickets, food vouchers and donations to youth groups.

BREWERS ON DECK

Brewers On Deck is the team's annual fan fest and season preview. Families can enjoy a day full of interactive games, clinics and autographs from players along with a Brewers Community Foundation Treasure Hunt, which features game-worn jerseys, game-used equipment and other memorabilia. All proceeds from the sale go toward Brewers Community Foundation youth recreation and education programs.

BREWERS COMMUNITY ACHIEVERS

The Brewers Community Achievers program recognizes volunteers, philanthropists and other heroes from our community who have helped their neighborhoods in extraordinary ways. The winners of the award receive four game tickets, on-field acknowledgement, a personalized jersey, and the opportunity to throw out the ceremonial first pitch. Winners also receive a Community Achievers certificate and a gift bag filled with Brewers memorabilia.

GRAND SLAM TEACHER PROGRAM

LOGO HISTORY

PRIMARY LOGO

1969

The Seattle Pilots used this logo for one season before moving to Milwaukee and becoming the Brewers.

1970-1977

The Barrelman logo was the first identity used by the Brewers. It was first used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s.

1978-1993

The ball-in-glove logo was introduced in 1978 after a contest open to the public drew more than 2,000 entries. An art history student at UW-Eau Claire, Tom Meindel, designed the logo that went on to be the winner. The design of the logo was meant to be recognizable on items as small as a button and as large as a billboard.

As the Brewers celebrated their 25th anniversary in Milwaukee, they introduced a new look. Green was incorporated as a color for the first time in franchise history. The logo resembled an industrial stamp, paying homage to Milwaukee's industrial history, and gave the team a modern yet old-fashioned look.

This logo was introduced during the final season at County Stadium, giving the team a fresh look heading into Miller Park. The classic yet contemporary look was created by McDill Design of Milwaukee along with Major League Baseball Creative Services. The barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the "Brewers" name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

In 2018, the team officially began using the "M" logo as its primary mark. The logo was first introduced in 2000 as part of the complete redesign of the team's artwork. Like the team's previous primary logo, the barley in the logo speaks to the heritage of the "Brewers" name that has been in Milwaukee baseball since 1901.

2020-PRESENT

At the onset of the Brewers' 50th anniversary, the team introduced a new look with a contemporary take on the ball-in-glove icon and brand-new uniforms. The new logo connects the past with the present; it includes elements of historical marks - a yellow border and circular text from the original Barrelman logo - with the modernized ball-in-glove logo and Brewers Industrial typeface.

Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) cards or working credentials issued by Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations or Major League Baseball are required for admittance. No other credential will be honored. All bags will be checked by security upon entrance to the ballpark.

BOB BETTS PRESS BOX
The Bob Betts Press Box is located on the Loge Level behind home plate. The press box and seven adjacent radio and television booths have rolling windows that are either entirely open or entirely closed. A quiet work room is located behind the main press box and should be used during postgame by radio stringers to send audio. An elevator directly behind the press box, which is reserved for media and first aid immediately after games, will transport media to the Service Level. Wireless network information is posted throughout the press box. The press box is a working area and should be treated as such. It is closed to scouts during the game.

CLUBHOUSES
The home clubhouse is located on the Service Level along the first-base side and the visiting clubhouse is located on the Service Level along the third-base side. Only properly credentialed media are allowed in the clubhouses. Media is allowed access beginning three and a half hours prior to game time. The home clubhouse closes when team batting practice begins and will remain closed through the game. The training room, X-ray room, kitchen, weight room and video room are all off limits to media. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouses without prior approval from the media relations staff. Cell phone usage is not allowed.

FIELD
Access to the playing field is available through the runways leading from the respective clubhouses or through the door to the right of the visitor's clubhouse. Only properly credentialed media are allowed on the field. Live or direct transmissions are permitted until 30 minutes prior to game time. The grounds crew and Media Relations Department politely ask media to avoid standing on the grass.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM
The media interview room, located across from the home clubhouse, is a classroom-style facility with telephone, internet and power service. The room seats 93 individuals and contains mult boxes for radio and television usage.

MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICES
The media relations offices are located in the press box at Miller Park. On non-game days, media can visit the offices by going to the main office entrance in the right-field corner of Miller Park and having the receptionist call up to the Media Relations Department.

PARKING
To access the parking area, take the Miller Park Way freeway exit off Interstate 94 and go straight at the traffic light at Frederick Miller Way. Media parking is located in the Logan Lot, just south of the south dock entrance. Media members with season credentials will receive a season parking pass, while media members with single-game credentials will be placed on a parking list and should check in with a parking attendant at the lot entrance. Parking is extremely limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. The Logan Lot is for working media only. Those abusing this policy will have their parking privileges and credentials revoked.

PHOTOGRAPHER INFORMATION
Photo wells are located on the first and third-base sides on the field near the dugouts as well as behind home plate. Two photo locations are also located on the Club Level near sections 320 and 339. Dark room facilities are located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse. Internet lines and wireless internet is available for photographers to transmit their photographs electronically. Please see connection information posted in the press box.

POSTGAME ACCESS
By rule, clubhouses open to media no later than 10 minutes after the conclusion of a game. At that time, the Brewers' manager will be made available in the media interview room. Only properly credentialed media are allowed access. The elevator behind the press box is reserved for media immediately following the conclusion of the game.

PRESS HOSPITALITY AND MEALS
The media dining room is located behind the main press box and broadcast booths on the Loge Level. A daily menu is posted at the entrance of the press box. Press hospitality is open to those with a BBWAA card or applicable credentials issued by the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department or Major League Baseball. Meals will be served beginning two and a half hours prior to game time and full meal service will end 30 minutes after first pitch. A $10 charge is levied for a full meal. Meal tickets can be purchased at the main entrance to the press box. Beverages, dessert and milkshakes are complimentary.

TELEVISION CREWS
Live transmission is NOT allowed during games inside Miller Park. Space to shoot game highlights is available upon request. Additional game highlights are available through the Milwaukee Brewers Scoreboard Department.

WORKING CREDENTIALS
Credentials must be requested online via the Major League Baseball credential website (credentials.mlb.com). Approval of requests will be subject to the discretion of the Milwaukee Brewers Media Relations Department. All individual game credential requests must be submitted online at least 24 hours in advance of the game or approval of the request is not guaranteed. Credentials should be displayed at all times and will be checked by stadium security. Daily credentials can be picked up at the south dock at Miller Park no earlier than six hours prior to game time. # BOB UECKER

Bob Uecker enters his 50th season as a broadcaster for his hometown team, calling games on Newsradio 620 WTMJ and the Brewers Radio Network. He is celebrating his 65th year in baseball.

Known across the country as "Mr. Baseball," Uecker is highly respected throughout the industry. He will forever be recognized in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York after earning the prestigious Ford C. Frick Award in 2003, which is presented annually to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game. On July 27 that summer, he made one of the most memorable speeches in Hall of Fame history, leaving his audience, including former President George H.W. Bush, in tears from laughter.

In 2001, Uecker was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame, where he joined baseball broadcasting luminaries Vin Scully, Mel Allen, Red Barber, Ernie Harwell and Jack Brickhouse, as well as other American icons, including Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Edward R. Murrow and Orson Welles. He was later inducted into the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association Hall of Fame in 2011 and the National Association of Broadcasters Broadcasting Hall of Fame in 2012.

In honor of Uecker's tenure as a broadcaster for the Brewers — which is the fourth-longest tenure of any broadcaster in the history of Major League Baseball — he is recognized throughout the Miller Park grounds. In 2003, Uecker became a member of the Brewers Walk of Fame, which is located near home plate on the plaza outside Miller Park.

On August 31, 2012, a statue bearing his likeness was dedicated in his honor outside Miller Park, joining those previously dedicated to fellow Hall of Famers Hank Aaron, Robin Yount and Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. "Bud" Selig. The ceremony was attended by celebrities, current and former players, as well as Uecker's family and friends.

On April 25, 2014, a second statue was dedicated in Uecker's honor, this one in the last row of the "Uecker Seats" on the Terrace Level at Miller Park. The statue commemorates the Miller Lite commercials in which he famously delivered the often repeated line, "I must be in the front row!" That year, he was also inducted into the inaugural class of the Brewers Wall of Honor, which is located along the third-base side outside Miller Park.

Uecker has also been recognized locally throughout his career with the Brewers, including earning Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year honors five times. He was inducted into the Wisconsin Performing Artists Hall of Fame in 1993, the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame in 1994, and the Wisconsin Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. In January 1995, he earned the Big B.A.T. Award from the Baseball Assistance Team at a dinner in New York City in recognizition of his continued support of former Major League players who are in need of assistance.

Uecker's big break can be traced to a 1969 visit with Al Hirt, a renowned jazz trumpeter from New Orleans. Hirt asked him to come on stage at a small nightclub he opened in Atlanta. Hirt was so impressed with Uecker that he arranged an appearance for him on The Tonight Show, starring Johnny Carson. Uecker became one of Carson's favorite guests, making more than 100 appearances before Carson retired in 1992. He also made appearances on The Mike Douglas Show, The Merv Griffin Show and Late Night with David Letterman, and served as a guest host on Saturday Night Live. Uecker became a national celebrity, and the ABC Network capitalized on his popularity. He went on to make appearances on The Superstars, Friday Night Videos and The Midnight Special, which opened the door for additional high-profile appearances.

A versatile talent, Uecker's credits go far beyond guest appearances and play-by-play. In 1985, he launched a television acting career as one of the stars of ABC's sitcom Mr. Belvedere, which aired 122 episodes. He also hosted two syndicated television shows, Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports and Bob Uecker's War of the Stars.

Additionally, Uecker was one of the Miller Lite All-Stars in commercials for the beverage during the 1980s and was cast as a radio announcer in the movies Major League, which was filmed at County Stadium in Milwaukee, and Major League II. He has even made appearances on the pro wrestling circuit, hosting WrestleMania III and WrestleMania IV, which earned him a spot in the WWE Hall of Fame in 2010.

Uecker's national recognition gained broadcasting Brewers games both on radio and television also led to his role as color commentator for ABC Sports coverage of Monday Night Baseball, the League Championship Series and World Series, as well as NBC's Friday Night Baseball.

Uecker's accomplishments are not limited to the electronic medium as he authored a book entitled Catcher in the Wry, a humorous look back on his six years spent as a catcher with the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves, St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia Phillies. One of the highlights of his career was being a member of the 1964 world champion Cardinals.

Despite his national attention and success, Uecker has never forgotten his roots. In 2015, he was honored with the Lombardi Foundation's Award of Excellence for his role in helping raise funds and awareness for cancer research. His philanthropic efforts have benefitted several local organizations, including the United Performing Arts Fund, the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer Fund, the Milwaukee Symphony, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Milwaukee, Big Brothers/Big Sisters and Wounded Warriors.

In addition, Uecker is an advocate for organizations that battle cystic fibrosis and heart disease, and is involved with the Wisconsin Department of Tourism and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

He was traded to the Angels following the 1988 campaign and later retired in 1990.

In recognition of Schroeder's long-serving tenure on the Brewers' broadcast team, he was enshrined on the Brewers Wall of Honor on July 17, 2015. In the organization's history, only Hall of Famer Bob Uecker has broadcast more games.

MILLER PARK INFORMATION

The Milwaukee Brewers take pride in offering the best overall experience for every fan who attends a game. Central to the quality of the fan experience is the team's jewel of a ballpark, Miller Park.

In 2019, over 2.9 million fans attended games at Miller Park, marking the 12th time in the past 13 seasons that the team exceeded 2.5 million in attendance. The Brewers are one of just eight teams in Major League Baseball who have sold at least 2.3 million tickets in every year since 2006. Miller Park has drawn over 49 million visitors to baseball games in 19 seasons, highlighted by 3,071,373 in 2011, which established an all-time Milwaukee baseball attendance record.

One of the keys to Miller Park's popularity is the dynamic nature of the facility that has allowed the ballpark to adapt to changing fan tastes over the years. This season, the Brewers will introduce two new fan experiences at Miller Park, including a new Field Level dining option in the left-field corner, The Restaurant To Be Named Later, which features a menu that celebrates a variety of Wisconsin favorites with twists on classic food and beverage offerings. The team also added a new bar and viewing deck in left field on the Loge Level, Miller Lite Landing, which features Molson Coors offerings and a lower section of seating in front of the deck.

Notable upgrades in recent seasons have included a renovation of the PNC Club Level concourse in 2018 that featured a redesign and modernization of the corridor as well as new dining options. A complete transformation of the food and beverage hospitality experience came in 2017, which marked the largest project funded by the organization in Miller Park history. The effort, which was honored with Ballpark Digest's 2017 Best New Concessions Experience Award, encompassed an architectural redesign throughout the ballpark. This included a total of 11 concession stands in the new "First Base Ward" and "Third Base Ward" as well as two new full-service bars on the Field Level offering a variety of Molson Coors products. Another element of the redesign was the introduction of a "Local Brews" Bar on the right-field side of the Loge Level, which features 30 taps serving craft beers from across Wisconsin.

In 2016, the team enhanced the U.S. Cellular® Power Playground kids' area, renovated the Home Plate Team Store and created a new executive suite for hosting meetings and entertaining at games.

In 2015, the signature project was "The Selig Experience," a state-of-the-art attraction honoring former Brewers Owner and Commissioner Emeritus, Hall of Famer Allan H. "Bud" Selig. The exhibit tells the story of Selig's role in saving Major League Baseball in Milwaukee, his successful efforts to bring the Brewers to the city, and his tireless efforts to promote and grow the game in his hometown.

In 2011, the Brewers debuted a state-of-the-art, high-definition scoreboard at Miller Park. It became the third true 1080, high-definition scoreboard in Major League Baseball and, at 5,940 square feet, is one of the largest scoreboards in baseball.

Other major updates to the ballpark over the years include the Miller Lite Deck and renovation of the Johnsonville™ Deck and SKYY Lounge on the Club Level (2013), the Brewers Team Store on the Club Level (2012), a party suite honoring the 2011 Brewers (2012), the Brewers Team Store on the Terrace Level (2009), the main Brewers Team Store (2009), the renovation of 43 Club-Level suites (2009), the renovation of the Johnson Controls Stadium Club (2008), the Northwestern Mutual Legends Club (2007) and the Aurora Health Care Bullpen (2007).

Miller Park debuted on April 6, 2001. In front of President George H.W. Bush, Commissioner Selig and many more dignitaries, the Milwaukee Brewers and Cincinnati Reds christened Miller Park in a thrilling game, culminating with a game-winning home run from Richie Sexson in the bottom of the eighth inning. On that day, President Bush became the first sitting president to attend a professional sporting event in the state of Wisconsin. He, along with Commissioner Selig, threw out ceremonial first pitches prior to the game.

Built to accommodate a variety of events, Miller Park is not just the home of Brewers baseball. In its inaugural 2001 season, the park played host to a pair of major concerts, the George Strait Country Music Festival in May and a show by 'N Sync in July.

Both concerts drew more than 34,000 fans and earned rave reviews from the performers and fans alike.

That was just the beginning of major musical events at Miller Park. In 2003, legendary rocker Bruce Springsteen brought his E Street Band for a memorable performance in front of more than 30,000 fans. In August 2005, Miller Park played host to the 150th birthday party for its namesake, the Miller Brewing Company, with a mini-village built on the field along with a stage where rocker Bon Jovi played to a sold-out crowd. In 2008, H.O.G. (the Harley Owners Group) celebrated its 25th anniversary with a spectacular rally of 45,000 motorcycle enthusiasts and a concert featuring Kid Rock in the Miller Park parking lots.

In October 2010, Miller Park hosted the 25th Anniversary Farm Aid Benefit Concert, featuring performances by such luminaries as Neil Young, Willie Nelson, Dave Matthews and John Mellencamp. In 2013, Miller Park hosted two sold-out concerts: Kenny Chesney's No Shoes Nation Tour and Paul McCartney's Out There Tour, and in 2015, One Direction rocked the venue during its On the Road Again Tour. Chesney has since performed at the ballpark twice more, on his Spread the Love Tour in 2016 and Trip Around the Sun Tour in 2018, and will return for a fourth showing this year, joined by Florida Georgia Line and Old Dominion, on April 25 as part of his Chillaxification 2020 Tour.

In recent seasons, Miller Park also played host to pop icon Ed Sheeran (2018) and represented the only Midwest stop on legendary musician Billy Joel's tour in 2019. In addition to Kenny Chesney, the ballpark will host The Stadium Tour in 2020, a sold-out show featuring Mötley Crüe, Def Leppard, Poison and Joan Jett & The Blackhearts on August 18.

In addition to concerts, there have been three international soccer matches played at Miller Park, including meetings between Swansea City A.F.C of the English Premier League and Chivas of Mexico's Liga MX in 2014, Atlas Futbol Club of the Mexican Liga MX and Newcastle Football Club of the English Premier League in 2015, and C.F. Pachuca and Club León, both of Mexico's Liga MX, in 2018.

Miller Park hosted the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 2002, which was Milwaukee's third All-Star contest and first since 1975, and was featured in the movie Mr. 3000 (2004), starring Bernie Mac and Angela Bassett.

HELFAER FIELD

The Milwaukee Brewers joined the Southeast Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District Board and the Evan and Marion Helfaer Foundation to build Helfaer Field, Wisconsin's finest youth baseball facility. Designed by Eppstein-Uhen Architects of Milwaukee, the facility was built on the site of County Stadium by Hunzinger Construction, the company that built the original County Stadium and part of the team that built Miller Park. The foul poles of County Stadium have been used at Helfaer Field, and the area where home plate existed in the old ballpark has been memorialized on the third base concourse.

The $3.1-million facility was built with the help of a $2 million charitable grant from the Helfaer Foundation as well as $1.1 million from the Miller Park infrastructure budget. Featuring 502 bleacher seats and additional concourse seating of 220, this is the premier location for youth baseball and softball leagues to host their games and tournaments and is perfect for kickball, employee outings, corporate events, birthday parties, and much more.

The fences reach 200 feet with six-foot high walls, with the exception of left field, where the wall is nine feet tall. The playing surface of Helfaer Field was replaced in October 2008, giving Little Leaguers the same playing surface that big leaguers play on inside Miller Park.

For more information about the facility or to reserve your event today, please visit brewers.com or call (414) 902-4332.

MILLER PARK COMMEMORATIONS

MILLER PARK STATUES

There are five statues located on the plaza outside of Miller Park, one each of former Brewers Owner and Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. (Bud) Selig, radio broadcaster Bob Uecker and Hall of Famers Hank Aaron and Robin Yount. The last features three ironworkers in honor of the three individuals who died when a crane collapsed during the construction of Miller Park on July 14, 1999. In addition, there is a statue of Uecker inside Miller Park located behind section 422 on the Terrace Level.

THE SELIG EXPERIENCE

In 2015, The Selig Experience arrived at Miller Park as a state-of-the-art attraction honoring former Brewers Owner and Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. "Bud" Selig, who was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017.

Miller Park is already known as a premier destination for baseball fans, and The Selig Experience takes that to the next level. The exhibition space totals approximately 1,400 square feet and includes authentic artifacts from Selig's tenure as Brewers owner. It celebrates the fans' love of the game as told through the story of the Brewers' founder.

The exhibit is located in the left-field corner on Miller Park's Loge Level. The attraction is highlighted by a multimedia presentation that tells the story of Selig's role in bringing Major League Baseball back to Milwaukee and his tireless efforts to promote and grow the game in his hometown. The show builds to a surprising three-dimensional encounter with the Commissioner himself, using technology found in only a handful of exhibits around the world, inside an authentic reproduction of his County Stadium office. After the show, fans are able to take a sneak peek into Selig's office.

The design and production of The Selig Experience was led by BRC Imagination Arts, an experience design firm that turns brands into destinations. For more than three decades, its masterful storytellers have been chosen by iconic brands and cultural attractions all over the world to inspire and engage their audiences. Uihlein-Wilson Architects contributed to the initial design of the space for The Selig Experience.

MILLER PARK WALK OF FAME

The Miller Park Walk of Fame commemorates some of the greatest names in Milwaukee baseball history. It is located on the plaza area outside the ballpark near the statues of Hank Aaron, Robin Yount, Commissioner Emeritus Allan H. (Bud) Selig and Bob Uecker. Each inductee is honored with a granite-shaped home plate set in the ground.

Started in Miller Park's inaugural season of 2001, the Walk of Fame has welcomed 20 inductees. The first class in 2001 included Hank Aaron, Rollie Fingers, Paul Molitor and Robin Yount. In 2007, former Milwaukee Braves players were added to the ballot in an effort to honor the strong baseball tradition of the city.

MILWAUKEE BREWERS WALL OF HONOR

The Brewers Wall of Honor commemorates Milwaukee Brewers players, coaches and executives who meet a set criteria based on service to the organization and/or career accomplishments. The Wall of Honor is a permanent exhibit on an exterior Miller Park wall adjacent to the Hot Corner entrance in left field. Honorees are recognized with a bronze plaque affixed to the wall along with their image and a brief synopsis of their Brewers career etched onto the marker. The plaques are created by Matthews International, designers of the plaques for the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

The inaugural Wall of Honor class of 58 inductees was recognized during a ceremony at Miller Park on June 13, 2014. Honorees and their guests (as well as representatives of those who were deceased) were invited to attend the unveiling ceremonies and be recognized during a program on the field prior to the game.

Beginning in 2015, a player who appeared in at least one game with the Brewers and served as a primary broadcaster for 20 or more seasons with the team was eligible for induction. Added to the criteria in 2018, a Brewers executive who spent at least 10 seasons as general manager with a postseason appearance was eligible for induction.

Last year, Trevor Hoffman, J.J. Hardy and Rickie Weeks joined the Wall of Honor. In addition to the 66 members currently inducted, there are 11 active players who meet the criteria, including John Axford, Ryan Braun, Yovani Gallardo, Carlos Gómez, Josh Hader, Jeremy Jeffress, Jonathan Lucroy, Francisco Rodríguez and Christian Yelich. Upon retirement, those players will be added annually to the Wall of Honor. Additionally, any inductee into the National Baseball Hall of Fame who played for or managed the Brewers is eligible.

On game days, the Executive Suite quickly converts from a board room to a premium suite with seating and food and beverages for groups that would like to hold a meeting and enjoy a Brewers game.

New in 2020, Miller Park has a brand-new restaurant and bar, The Restaurant To Be Named Later. The restaurant features a private event space, The Brew Room, which offers a private bar, flat screen televisions and A/V capabilities and provides an unforgettable view of the ballpark. The Brew Room is available for rental on non-game days for up to 40 people and is perfect for luncheons, rehearsal dinners, wedding/baby showers and other small social events. For more information, visit millerpark.com. On game days, the room may be rented as an all-inclusive area — including buffet, two complimentary beers per adult and private patio — for groups from 30-60 people. For more information, visit brewers.com/allin.

For a truly unique experience, clients may also host an event on the playing field, Field Level concourse or may even rent the entire ballpark. Miller Park has hosted professional soccer matches and national concert tours. When the Brewers are on the road, Miller Park can be transformed in a number of ways. ## ANNUAL SPECIAL EVENTS

BREWERS MINI-MARATHON

The Brewers Mini-Marathon is a half marathon (13.1 miles), 10K (6.214 miles) and 5K (3.1 miles) race that starts and finishes at Miller Park, including a portion on the warning track. Each year, participants raise funds to benefit the MACC Fund (Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer, Inc.) and childhood cancer research throughout Wisconsin. Once participants cross the finish line, they are invited to a post-race tailgate party at Miller Park with live music and food. The ninth annual Brewers Mini-Marathon will take place on Saturday, August 29. Registration and race information can be found at brewersmini.com.

FIELD OF SWEET DREAMS PRESENTED BY MEIJER® AND STEINHAFELS

The yearly camp-out in Bernie's backyard is a family favorite at Miller Park. Guests bring sleeping bags, tents and pillows and spend the night sleeping in the outfield under the stars. Bernie Brewer and the Johnsonville Famous Racing Sausages stop by to visit, and guests cheer on the Brewers as the away game is shown on Miller Park's scoreboard. Everyone is invited to play catch in the outfield and take a tour of Miller Park before watching a movie and hearing a bedtime story read by Brewers players and coaches. For more information, visit brewers.com/sweetdreams.

BERNIE BREWER @Bernie_Brewer

Perhaps as much a part of Milwaukee's baseball history as the players, Bernie Brewer, the official team mascot, has become a symbol of what is special about being a fan of the Brewers. The concept of a team mascot first emerged back in 1970, when the expansion team needed to draw more fans to the ballpark. That year, the original "Bernie Brewer," 69-year-old Milt Mason, camped out in a trailer atop the scoreboard in late June, vowing not to come down until a crowd of at least 40,000 attended a game. A bat-day crowd of 44,387 showed up to bring their adopted hero down from his perch on August 16.

The demand for Bernie Brewer grew, and by 1973, he emerged as a character who cheered on the team from a beer-barreled chalet, sliding down into a beer stein following each Brewers home run and victory. Bernie Brewer became a fixture at home games, especially for team's known as "Bambi's Bombers" and "Harvey's Wallbangers," when homers came with regularity.

In 1984, the Brewers rebuilt the bleachers, replacing Bernie's Chalet with a sound tower, sending the mascot into temporary retirement. But, by popular demand in 1993, Bernie returned and has been a fixture at every home game since.

JOHNSONVILLE™ FAMOUS RACING SAUSAGES

Legend has it that the Johnsonville™ Famous Racing Sausages started to take shape in the early 1990s. In their formative years, they were little more than a cartoon running a virtual race every home game on the giant scoreboard in center field at County Stadium. As the movement began to take shape and a buzz developed about the characters, eventually the Bratwurst (#1), Polish (#2) and Italian (#3) made their debuts out of the left-field corner of County Stadium on select Sundays throughout the season. What started as a fun way to entertain many of the children attending afternoon games became an instant hit. The three sausages added a fourth when Hot Dog (#4) came on board in the middle of the 1990s.

The race grew in popularity among young and old alike. During the 2000 season — the final year of County Stadium — the virtual race was thrown out and macots began to race every game. Running with the Sausages took on a life of its own as having an 'in' with the team might mean the chance to dive into the costume and scurry along the warning track prior to the seventh inning. Hideo Nomo, Pat Meares and Geoff Jenkins are just three of the lucky players to boast "Racing Sausage" among their personal accolades. In 2007, Chorizo (#5) permanently joined the team after a one-game debut in 2006.

HANK "THE BALLPARK PUP"

The morning of February 17, 2014 dawned sunny and warm in Phoenix, not unlike most days that the Milwaukee Brewers see at their Phoenix Spring Training headquarters. But what first seemed like an ordinary day soon became much more, all because of a visit from a four-legged friend.

Many major metro areas are overwhelmed with a problem of stray animals, and Phoenix is no different. Small dogs are occasionally seen wandering the outskirts of the Brewers' training fields, but they are typically too scared to interact with anyone on site. That day, though, a scruffy, dirty, and slightly injured little dog wandered up to staff at the Brewers' Spring Training camp and made himself at home. This pup was fearless, and he knew a good thing when he saw it. Not long after, the little guy was named Hank (after the great Hank Aaron), and his story was just starting.

Hank was cared for by staff on site, and soon Brewers coach Ed Sedar became his unofficial guardian. Sedar would feed Hank from the clubhouse buffet each day, and he quickly became friendly with various players and staff. It was clear, though, that the priority was to find Hank's home, and the Brewers set out to do just that.

By using social and traditional media channels, the Brewers posted regular updates on Hank's exploits. Every day, Hank would interact with players and coaches in the team's clubhouse, go from station to station as players participated in drills, ran occasionally with the Johnsonville™ Famous Racing Sausages and hosted meet-and-greets with visiting players, celebrities and fans. Outfitted in a Brewers jersey, updates of Hank's activities were posted every day by the Brewers, and it wasn't long before national media picked up on the story.

Locally, nationally and internationally, Hank's story appeared everywhere — ABC World News Tonight, The Today Show, People Magazine, The Tonight Show and countless others all featured Hank's heart-warming tale, and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel ran photos and stories about Hank virtually every day for over a month. What didn't happen, though, was just as surprising. Despite the team's best efforts, nobody came forward to claim Hank as their lost pet. Working with the Wisconsin Humane Society, the Brewers arranged to have Hank adopted by a team executive, and Hank's forever home shifted north.

Hank's popularity in Milwaukee preceded his arrival to the city, and the Brewers rolled out a line of merchandise to celebrate this popularity. In addition, the team partnered with the Wisconsin Humane Society to donate 20 percent of the retail sales from all Hank items to the "Hank Fund." By September, the fund had reached a level of $150,000 through this contribution.

Hank's story included an Opening Day introduction on the field, a sold-out bobblehead night, meet-and-greets with fans at games and a Hank House (dog house) built for Hank's Miller Park visits. After his newly-found fame became too much for one dog to handle, the Hank mascot was introduced on Wisconsin Humane Society Day at Miller Park on September 13, 2014.

In January 2015, Hank was named "Dog of the Year" at the CW Network's World Dog Awards in Los Angeles, an award which was presented to the canine who made the biggest impact on pop culture in 2014. What makes Hank unique is how he came to be a part of the organization. The Brewers didn't find Hank; Hank found the Brewers.

BARRELMAN

Barrelman made his debut as a team mascot in 2015. The mascot was originally used by the original American Association Brewers in the 1940s prior to serving as the Milwaukee Brewers' primary logo from 1970-77. In 2020, Barrelman was refreshed as part of the Brewers' new brand.

The Brewers will play their 23rd season of Spring Training baseball in Phoenix in 2020. Two offseasons ago, the team's Spring Training complex underwent a complete transformation that turned the grounds into a state-of-the-art facility. On November 25, 2017, the Phoenix City Council voted in favor of a renovation of the site. Construction began on March 20, 2018 and Maryvale Baseball Park soon became American Family Fields of Phoenix.

American Family Fields of Phoenix was officially opened on February 12, 2019, featuring a 106,000-square foot clubhouse and office building which houses locker rooms, training spaces and support functions for both Major League and Minor League players as well as the Brewers Retail Store and the team's primary ticket office. The investment included updated facilities for sports science and psychological services, an eight-lane batting tunnel, an agility field, new pitching and catching mounds, a practice field matching Miller Park's dimensions, and improvements to each of the seven playing fields. Renovations also featured a new entry plaza, scoreboard, concession stands and restrooms on a widened first-base concourse. Additionally, the Brewers partnered with Grand Canyon University to create an on-site "Learning Lounge," through which local students are able to access free tutoring. The project was named Ballpark Digest's Renovation of the Year and Best Spring Training Experience by the Phoenix New Times, while the "Learning Lounge" earned a Governor's Tourism Award.

John F. Long, a longtime Valley developer, donated 56 acres of land to make the Brewers' Spring Training complex a reality in 1998. The team oversees operations of the facility, which was designed by HKS Design and built by Mortenson Construction.
